Announcement has been made that the United States Lawn Tennis Association has just set the date for the ninth annual Old Dominion tennis tournament, to be held on the County Club courts. This tournament will take place the week of June 8.

The tennis players have already started to get into shape for this tournament, for they are determined this year to keep the challenge cup in Richmond. The probability of doing this is better than before, as all the players are showing such good form and aptitude for this fascinating game that they are unquestionably as good. If not better, than the players that have already won the laurels of this tournament. Dunn, Trigy, Cooke, McCabe and Buford can always be depended upon to show up well, but that is not quite enough. We expect one of them to win this year.

none by June 9. The Old Dominion tournament has attracted a very large field in the past, but with the four new courts that have been recently added, it will be without a doubt one of the largest fournaments that Richmond

Chance Predicts Good Season for Yanks

Frank Chance, the Big Bear, in a letter to Owner Frank Farrell, de-clared he was more than satisfied with the way the members of the New the way the members of the New York American League team squad worked out at Hamilton, Bermuda, and predicts that the team will be fighting its way into the first division before the season is half over. The Peerless Lender cannot see how his team will possibly finish lower than fifth place in the 1913 race

George Burns, the hustling young utility outfielder of the New York Glants, whose work in the South has caused the experts to predict that Burns will dis-place little Josh Devore in the regular left field berth. Burns is a very fast man, and his hitting has been little short of phenomenal this spring. He has

ATHLETICS WANT GOULD AND HUHN EASTERN GAMES WIN TENNIS MATCH

Louisville, Ky., March 26.—The squad of Athletics which is here on its way to Indianapolis and the north to play exhibition games will probably have to cancel all dates and proceed from here direct to Philadelphia, by way of Washington, on account of the almost complete disruption of railroad traffic due to the floods. The management of the squad is endeavoring to arrange exhibition games on the way East.

Atlanta, Ga., March 26.—The Atlanta team, of the Southern Association, defeated the Boston Nationals in the final game of the exhibition series to-day by a score of 7 to 3. Boston won three of the five games played.

their overwhelming defeat to-day by a score of 10 to 1.

Carolina's youthful pitcher, Ben Aycock, pitched the nine innings, and it was only by a bunt in the second inning that a lone run was tallied against him. To the credit of Aycock is the distinction of pitching the first no-hit game on the home grounds in a couple of years, the last man to star so gloriously was "Red" Stewart. Connecticut's pitching staff proved weak, and it was in the second inning that a change was made. Swift substituting change was made, Swift substituting for Warner. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Chapel Hill, N. C., March 26.—The inability of the Trinity College, Connecticut, baseball team to land a single safe hit from the twirler of the University of North Carolina team combined with an abundance of costly errors by the Connecticut lads, read their overwhelming defeat to-day by a score of 10 to 1.

Raleigh, N. C., March 26.—The Phillies to-day trounced the Raleigh club by 7 to 0. Marshall, who comes from Portsmouth, O., distinguished himself by twirling the entire nine innings and allowing only four hits. He stuck out eight men. Lobert and Luderus hit the ball hard. The Phillies left to-night for Richmond.

PAYS SPEED FINE

Augusta, Ga. March 26.—Manager Dahlen is making his Superbas work overtime to make up for the time lost because of bad weather. The entire squad was on the field from 10 o'clock this morning until 5 o'clock in the afternoch to-day, and will have a brisk workout before leaving to-mortow for Savannah, where two games have been arranged with Newark. In to-day's game the regulars and the recruits, under Captain Jake Daubert, the former won by the narrow margin of one score. Six to five was the final count. All the pitchers were more or less erratic, and showed a gross lack of control.
